

BOOTHEEL
Babies
& FAMILIES

Grant Information Meeting

Learn more about how your nonprofit organization can apply for grants to support infant mortality reduction work in Stoddard County.

Meetings are virtual, free and registration is required.

Monday, October 19th at 3:30 pm

Wednesday, October 21st at 3:30 pm

Thursday, October 22nd at 6:00 pm

For more information, please contact:

Rachelle Bennett BSN RN
Nurse Educator/HUB Coordinator, Mother-to-Mother, Regional Healthcare Foundation
RachelleB@regionalhf.org

WHO'S AFFECTED BY INFANT MORTALITY?
— EVERYONE. —

Infant mortality has long-lasting effects on families, businesses and communities as a whole.

Infant mortality is a key indicator of overall population health within communities, affecting not just individual families but business development, socioeconomics and overall community growth and success. Lowering the Bootheel's infant mortality rate benefits us all, not just the families directly affected by the loss of a child.